

Paermann, J. B

December 30, 1904

Cable address: Lanzerp New York

Codes Used

Letters Standard

Riverside

S. I. B. C. 4th Edition

Baltimore Export 2nd Edition

Atlantic

"Private" Code.

Henry A. Lloyd, Pres
J. B. Buermann, V. Pres

Atlantic Export Company

Incorporated under laws of State of New York

Hudson Building

32 Broadway, New York

December 30th 1904.

Messrs. S. H. & H. Chapman,

1348 Pine Str. Phila, Pa.

Gentlemen,-

Will you kindly let me know the original money-value of the coronation gold coin of Francis I which I bought from you yesterday. In order to make it easier for you, I enclose your original yellow envelope marked No.3. You told me,- if I am not mistaken,- that it was  $1\frac{1}{2}$  Thalers; this, however, is unlikely as, judging from the size, it looks like two Ducats, and certainly weighs more than one Ducat,- while one Ducat is  $3\frac{1}{5}$  old Thalers.

Will you kindly send me on approval the following silver coins of the Napoleonic Era which you have shown to me yesterday, viz:

- ✓ ✓ Joseph, as King of Sicily, and as King of Spain;
- ✓ Jerome, as King of Westphalia;
- ✓ Elise, as Princess of Lucca;
- ✓ Joachim, as King of Sicily;
- ✓ Berthier, as Prince of Neufchatel,

also, if you please, that small gold coin of Wallenstein.

Kindly make your lowest prices, and I will return or remit within two days after I received the coins.

I am a stranger to you, but am well-known in Philadelphia: Mr. Dunwoody, President of the Commercial Exchange, will tell you that my company are members, and that I represent my company on the floor of the Commercial Exchange of your city. Furthermore I refer to the Merchants National Bank of your city, Mr. Ebell, manager;- and finally to almost every European Ss Co there and almost every member of the Commercial Exchange of your city.

Yours truly

Baermann J.B.

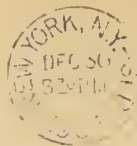

Empf. Envelope
orden

aus

ATLANTIC EXPORT COMPANY,

32 BROADWAY, NEW YORK.

Messrs. S. H. & H. Chapman,

1348 Pine Street,

PHILADELPHIA,

Pennsylvania.

Baermann, J. B.

November 24, 1903
Empty envelope

Bacon

|||||

8

RT COMPANY,
AY, NEW YORK.

Messrs. S. H. & H. Chapman,

1346 Pine Street,

Philadelphia,

Pennsylvania.